

Scholastic Chess Tournament

Last Moves of 2005 – Thursday, December 29

Morgantown Chess Club invites you to a fun-filled afternoon of chess!

What happens?

Two chess tournaments (4 rounds each) – Play one or both.
Players will be grouped based on age and skill level.
There is a $5 fee to participate, which goes towards prizes.
Tournament is unrated – we play to learn and have fun!

When?

Thursday, December 29, from 12:30pm to 5:30pm
(2nd tournament should start around 3pm)

Where?

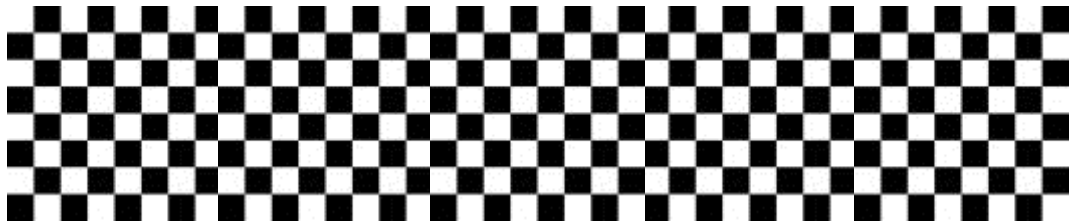

First Christian Church (Basement)
100 Cobun Ave, Morgantown
(Bottom of Grand St. near MHS football stadium)

What to bring to tournament?

Chess set and board. Bring a chess clock if you have one.
Bring an adult! We ask that children (u.12) are accompanied by a responsible adult
There will be a limited concession stand with drinks, fruit and snacks.

Registration and more information:

Call: Jens Madsen, 599-8915 or Email: morgantownchess@gmail.com
Please, visit our website: <http://morgantownchess.farvista.net>

Morgantown Chess Club is an affiliate of the United States Chess Federation. Our goal is to promote chess awareness and enjoyment in northern central West Virginia. Club activities include tournaments, lectures, simuls, and team matches.